

28.

The legislative body of any municipal corporation whose officers and employees are members of the Employees' Retirement System may elect to withdraw its officers and employees who consent to such withdrawal from the Employees' Retirement System and to transfer the said officers and employees to a local retirement system established by the municipal corporation. The withdrawal and transferral shall become effective only at the end of the fiscal year, namely, June 30th. As of this effective date the amount of the accumulated contributions of the withdrawing officers and employees of the municipal corporation shall be transferred to the administrative board of the local retirement system and credited to the account of the said officers or employees. The amount of reserve in the Employees' Retirement System as a result of the previous contributions of the municipal corporation shall be determined for each withdrawing officer and employee on the effective date of transfer and such amount shall be transferred to the administrative board of the local retirement system. The aggregate amount of the said contributions on the effective date shall be paid to the administrative board of the local retirement system to be held in trust to provide retirement benefits for the officers and employees transferred to the local retirement system. From and after the effective date of the establishment of the local retirement system by the municipal corporation, the municipal corporation and its officers and employees shall not be required to make any further contributions to the Employees' Retirement System for the officers and employees electing to withdraw from said Employees' Retirement System. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this article, no municipal corporation or other body or association participating in the Employees' Retirement System shall be permitted to withdraw from said system for a period of one year beginning July 1, 1969 but this prohibition shall not affect, and permission is extended for, supplemental individual or group withdrawals of officers and employees, and the transfer of assets for the accumulated contributions and appropriate reserves for such officers and employees, to any local retirement system which was established under this section prior to January 1, 1969, and with respect to which withdrawals from the State Employees' Retirement System to the local system had commenced by that date. Any municipal corporation which withdraws its officers and employees from the Employees' Retirement System as provided in this section, or which re-enters its officers and employees into the Employees' Retirement System after having withdrawn them, shall pay all administrative costs involved in such withdrawal or re-entry.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1970.
