

the Budget] Secretary of Public Safety and Correctional Services and the legislature;

(8) To make such rules and regulations as may be reasonably necessary or appropriate to accomplish the purposes and objectives of this section;

(9) To make a continuous study of police recruit and in-service training methods and procedures and to consult with and accept the cooperation of any recognized federal, State, or municipal law enforcement agency or educational institution;

(10) To consult and cooperate with universities, colleges and institutions in the State for the development of specialized courses of study for police officers in police science and police administration;

(11) To consult and cooperate with other departments and agencies of the State concerned with police training;

(12) To perform such other acts as may be necessary or appropriate to carry out its functions and duties as set forth in this section.

108.

(a) A Board of Parole, hereinafter referred to as the "Board," is hereby established as part of the Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services. It is composed of a chairman and four associate members. The members are appointed for terms of eight years each by the Secretary of Public Safety and Correctional Services, with the approval of the Governor, and with the advice and consent of the Senate of Maryland. From time to time the Secretary of Public Safety and Correctional Services, with the approval of the Governor, shall designate the chairman of the Board. Of the members initially appointed as of January 1, 1969, the chairman is appointed for a term of eight years, and the associate members for terms of six, five, four and two years respectively, and thereafter all terms are for eight years each.

(b) The Secretary of Public Safety and Correctional Services, with the approval of the Governor may remove any member of the Board for disability, neglect of duty, malfeasance in office or misconduct, after giving him written notice of the charges against him and holding a public hearing thereon.

115.

(a) There is hereby created a [Department] Division of Parole and Probation, which shall be part of the Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services, and the head of which shall be the Director of Parole and Probation. The Director shall be appointed by the Secretary of Public Safety and Correctional Services, with the approval of the Governor of Maryland and by and with the advice and consent of the Senate of Maryland for an indefinite term, at the pleasure of the [Governor] Secretary. The salary of the Director shall be as provided in the annual State budget.

(b) [The Department] Subject to the authority of the Secretary of Public Safety and Correctional Services, the Division of Parole and Probation shall have the following duties, in addition to any other duties provided for herein or by law: