

James's Inspection B^oth beginning at a locust post now left up in the place where the mark Hickory the first bounded Tree of the said land was proved to stand being on the East side of Stool gone Bay now in said Kent County standing on the beach near the mouth of a Creek called Steel Bone Creek by a point at the of the beach Respecting the Land of George Gouldsmith, now in possession of William Jones & Running on at several courses - Downe Stool gone Bay and up the main Bay as followeth, first North West by West Twenty two perches thence North North West Twenty five perches thence North Forty two perches thence North by West Thirty four perches, thence North West by North Twenty six perches, thence North West by West Thirty eight perches, thence North West by North Twenty two perches thence North Eight Degrees East Forty eight perches, to the Second Tree of William Stone, standing on the Top of the Bank by the Bay side, thence North by East Forty perches thence North East by North Twenty perches, thence North East by East Twenty six perches, thence East North East Sixteen perches thence East by North Sixteen perches, thence East North East Sixty perches, thence North Sixty Degrees East One hundred & fifty perches, thence East North East one hundred and two perches, to a mark Gum being the first bounded Tree of Horrell's Addition standing on the North side of a pond called the Little pond, and Running thence South Three Hundred and Twenty perches, thence North East by East One hundred and Seventy perches thence North One hundred and Eighteen perches thence East One hundred and Fifty & seven perches, thence South South East Sixty two perches thence West Eighty nine perches thence South One hundred and Forty six perches, thence South West by West One Hundred & forty four perches, thence West Eight Degrees North One hundred and seven perches thence West South West unto the first Beginning at the mouth of Stool gone Creek containing and now resurveyed and laid out for Eight hundred and Eighty Acres now called Blay Barker More or less to be holden of the manner of Baltimore J^r me

Harmanus Schee, Kent Co^y Survey.