

hundred and thirty six by his Lordship the Right Honorable the Lord Proprietary Granted and Confirmed to the said Benjamin Tabor and Called the prospect to Annapolis as aforesaid Beginning at three bounded Locust Trees standing by the River side in the said Tabor - Pasture on the North side of Severn River, W. Jarrolles Point in Annapolis bearing from the said Locust South sixty eight Degrees and a half West and running from the said three Locusts south sixty five and a half Deg: East thirty eight perches with the River and bounding on the River and Creek from thence south seventy seven degrees East sixteen perches then North East and by East sixteen perches thence North North West sixty seven and a half Degrees East fifty eight perches then south eighty nine Degrees East ten perches then north twenty degrees West twenty five perches then North twenty four degrees East forty three perches then North sixty four Degrees west twelve perches then north sixteen degrees west fifty perches then North fifty four degrees west ten perches then North seventy five degrees East twenty two perches then North fifty two degrees west thirty perches then south eighty two degrees west fourteen perches then North twenty degrees west twelve perches then North fifty eight degrees west twenty two perches then North sixty seven degrees West eight perches to a bounded poplar by a spring then North thirty one degrees west thirty perches to a bounded poplar of the Land of W. Charles Hammond then North fifty three degrees (west)