

59 Then North one hundred and seventeen Perches then North fifty four Deg: East eighteen Perches to the side of Hunting Creek af: then binding up the said Creek as the Creek runneth South twenty four Degrees East twenty eight Perches then South fifty six Degrees East sixty eight Perches then North seven Degrees West thirty eight Perches then North fifty Degrees East twenty nine Perches to a bounded White Oak upon a Point by the Creek side being the North west bounded Tree of Woodman Stokelys Land then by the said Land South and by East three hundred thirty four Perches to the Land of God: John Biggs lately recovered for him and called Biggs then with the said Land South west forty two Perches then South eighteen Perches to a Hickory lately bounded for the said Land near the foot of an old Tree being the bounded Tree of the Land of the said Gods grace and running West one hundred eighty six Perch: to an ancient bounded white Oak standing at the Head of Ragby's Creek af: then down the Creek these following Courses Viz: South eighty four Degrees West thirty Perches then North sixty nine West sixteen Perches then South eighty two Degrees West sixteen Perch: then South sixty two Degrees West forty Perches then South nineteen Degrees West twelve Perches then South seven Degrees East sixteen Perch: then South thirty one Degrees West twenty two Perches then South sixty five Degrees West sixty Perches then South twenty six Perches then with a straight Line to the first bounded Tree containing eight hundred and thirty seven Acres more or less Together with all Gardens Stables Houses Tobacco Houses to the said Tract of Land belonging or any wise appertaining and also the Reversion and Reversions Remainder and Remainders Rents and Services of all and singular the Premises above mentioned (20)