

299 Choice lying on the East side of Chesapeake Bay adjoining to the said Tract of Land called Frisby's Forrest Pulled and Bounded as follows (viz) Beginning at a Bounded Locust Post being placed by the Commissioners appointed by ^{the} Justices of Cecil County Court to Perpetuate the Bound of the said white marsh lanes and standing by the side of the white marsh which said Marsh being at the Head of a creek called the Scottsman's Creek) instead of the Original marked white Oak the Beginning Tree of the said Tract called Frisby's Prime Choice and the beginning of the Division of that Part of the said Tract of Land called Frisby's Prime Choice sold by the said Thomas Woodley to Daniel Cheston of Kent County Gentleman and running from the said Bounded Locust Post with the said Daniel Cheston's dividing line south seventy one Degrees West Ninety four Perches and half a Perch to a Locust Post, thence North fifty eight Degrees West with the said Cheston's dividing line Sixty eight Perches to another Locust Post then running with a Straight line it being the said Cheston's dividing line to a Locust Post placed at the end of the North by West line of Thomas Davis's Land called the Level then running with the said Level West south West forty two Perches then North one Degree East Sixty eight Perches untill it Intersects the road leading to the Church the north with the said Road North seventeen Degrees, thirty Minutes east One Hundred forty and seven Perches untill it Intersects the South East line of the said Frisby's Prime Choice on the Green before the Church Door which said Church is Dulton a Tract of Land called the North Level taken up by William Ward of Cecil County a^r. and from the said Intersection running with the south East line of the said Frisby's Prime Choice to the beginning ^{Bounded} Locust Post containing by Estimation one hundred thirty and seven Acres be the same more or less together with all and singular the Buildings, Fences and Improvements on the aforementioned Lands pulled and Bounded as a^r. or any of them being and also the Reversion Reversions Remainder and (Remainders)