

This Indenture made this Ninth day of June in the year of our Lord one Thousand seven hundred and forty eight Between the Honourable George Plater of Saint Marys County in the Province of Maryland Esquire of the one part and the Honourable Benedict Calvert of the City of Annapolis in the said Province Esquire of the other part Whereas the said George Plater and the Estate of the late Honourable Charles Calvert Esquire deceased belonging to Elizabeth the now Wife of the said Benedict Calvert being both Creditors of Samuel Hyde late of London Merchant and on the failure of the said Samuel Hyde Attachments have been obtained out of the Provincial Court in Order to Attach the Effects of the said Samuel Hyde for Satisfaction of the aforesaid Respective Debts Whereupon it was Agreed between the said George Plater and Onorio Razolini Gentlemen on behalf of the said Elizabeth then unmarried to share Equally whatsoever should be condemned of the Effects of the said Samuel Hyde (that is to say) the said George Plater was to have one Moiety or half part and the said Onorio in the Right aforesaid the other Moiety or half part AND Whereas on the said several Attachments several Tracts of Land Negroes and other Effects were condemned but in Order to Ascertain what portion of each should belong to either of the said Parties they the said George Plater Benedict Calvert and Onorio Razolini submitted such Apportionment to the Decision & Determination of Edmund Jennings Esq. who (amongst other things) thought it Reasonable and just and accordingly decrees that a Tract of Land called the Hermitage containing eight hundred and twenty three Acres more or less lying in Prince Georges County and condemned at the Suit and upon the Attachment of the said George Plater should be conveyed to the said Benedict Calvert and his Heirs with which said Determination the said several Parties to the said Reference
