

South Sixty six degrees West one hundred and eighty five Perches with the given line of Dorsey's Tract to the end of Twenty second course of the Original Survey and then bounding on the Original Survey the four following courses North fifteen degrees West Ninety Perches North sixty seven degrees West twenty six Perches South thirty two Degrees West eighty eight Perches South fifty eight degrees West Twenty Perches then North sixty degrees West eighty three Perches to the end of the thirty fourth course then bounding on the Original Survey North ~~thirty eight~~^{thirty six} degrees East sixty Perches North sixteen Degrees East fifty eight Perches North seventy Degrees east thirty nine Perches South eighty eight Degrees east one hundred and fifty four Perches South fifty four degrees East Twenty South seventy one degrees East fifty three Perches then with a straight line to the Beginning for two hundred Acres of Land More or Less All the above mentioned Tracts or Parcels of Land
I give unto my son Charles Dorsey his Heirs and Assigns forever as above mentioned from by or under me my Heirs or Assigns for ever As Witness my Hand and Seal this fifteenth day of March One Thousand seven hundred and sixty four eight Interlined in the Twelfth Line before signed fifteenth Line Perches Interlined before signed Signed sealed and Delivered in the Presence of

Edw. Dorsey

John Howard
John Burgess Junr

On the Back of the aforesaid Deed was thus written Vizt On the 19th of March 1764 came me Edward Dorsey before us two of his Lordships Justices of the Peace for Ann Arundel County and Acknowledged the within Deed and the ^{Land} whereon mentioned to be the Right and Estate of the within named Charles Dorsey his Heirs and Assigns forever (Ord)