

Answer I thought you might have left that Country - on the other Side I will send you a Copy of that letter - Now for the Farmett is called Cannon Hill in Surrey, the Farmer who occupied it when I left London was John Speers as to all papers belonging to that affair, & every other your Uncle Edward has ever since year 1748 as he was appointed by the L^d Chancellor Receiver & Trustee for the Orphans on his swearing himself worth a Thousand Pounds - I wish he may do justice to you all - as to myself I dont expect he will do me any for I can have no great opinion of the integrity of one who has taken such an oath, God for Gw^d him - It gives me great pleasure to hear you are all well & that Kitty is so fat, it shews she has peace of Mind, I wish I had - M^r. Glasse is gon to London were I hope I shall be in a short time when I will write to you again & give you all the help I can in the affair (tho it was willd to me in consideration of my giving up to your Bro^r Francis a House of 30 P. p^o annum) I have no inclination to deprive you of it, I assure you, & if you get it, I hope you will return to England, & spend your days which will be one of the greatest pleasures of my life to see you & yours - I have had nine Children by M^r. Glasse & have onely three ^{living} Viz Fanny, Alex^r & Geo: who all desires to be kindly remembered to you & believe me to be with the greatest Love to Kitty & my little Cousins your most

Copy of a Letter sent Feb. 24^o 1754

I received a few favours of the same date viz Sept. 10. 1753 a few days ago directed to the care of M^r. John Christam in Douglafs were in you tell me that it is seven years since you heard from me, I dont know I have any of your letters by me un answerd, you say what is past is for got by you, I am sure I never wrongd you or any one of the family which I had in my power several times to have done had I been of a mercenary temper and perhaps might have been
