

(1) To prescribe standards for the approval and continuation of approval of [recruit] entrance-level and in-service schools at which police training and security training courses required by this section shall be conducted, including but not limited to present existing State, regional, county, and municipal police training schools;

(2) To approve and issue certificates of approval to such [police] training schools, to inspect such schools from time to time, and to revoke for cause any approval or certificate issued to such school;

(3) To prescribe the curriculum, the minimum courses of study, attendance requirements, eligibility to attend, equipment and facilities, and standards of operation for such [police] training schools;

(4) To prescribe minimum qualifications for instructors at such schools and to certify, as qualified, instructors for approved [police] training schools and to issue appropriate certificates to such instructors;

(5) To certify [police] officers who have satisfactorily completed training programs and to issue appropriate certificates to such [police] officers;

(6) To appoint, with the approval of the Secretary of Public Safety and Correctional Services, an executive secretary, to serve at its pleasure, who shall perform general administrative functions, and to fix his compensation;

(7) To employ such other persons as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this section, upon approval of the Secretary of Public Safety and Correctional Services and the legislature;

(8) To make such rules and regulations as may be reasonably necessary or appropriate to accomplish the purposes and objectives of this section;

(9) To make a continuous study of [police recruit] entrance level and in-service training methods and procedures and to consult with and accept the cooperation of any recognized federal, State, or municipal law-enforcement agency or educational institution;

(10) To consult and cooperate with universities, colleges and institutions in the State for the development of specialized courses of study for police officers in police science and police administration;

(11) To consult and cooperate with other departments and agencies of the State concerned with police training;

(12) To perform such other acts as may be necessary or appropriate to carry out its functions and duties as set forth in this section.

(e) A probationary appointment as a police or security officer, police supervisor or police administrator may be made for a total period not exceeding one (1) year for the purpose of enabling such a person seeking permanent appointment to take a [police] training course as prescribed in this section. [No person shall be permitted to attend a police training school unless he holds such probationary appointment, except in the discretion of the Commission, and such] Such appointee shall be entitled to leave of absence with pay during the period of the [police] training program.