b. The Department may except by rule any compound, mixture, or preparation containing any depressant substance listed in subsection (a) from the application of all or any part of this Act if the compound, mixture, or preparation contains one or more active medicinal ingredients not having a depressant effect on the central nervous system, and if the admixtures are included therein in combinations, quantity, proportion, or concentration that vitiate the potential for abuse of the substances which have a depressant effect on the central nervous system.

[(d)] (e) Schedule [IV] V—In determining that a substance comes within this schedule, the Department shall find:

1. A low potential for abuse relative to the substances listed in Schedule [III] IV; and
2. Currently accepted medical use in the United States; and
3. Limited physical dependence and/or psychological dependence liability relative to the substances listed in Schedule [III] IV.

The following are controlled dangerous substances and are included in this schedule.

a. Any compound, mixture, or preparation containing limited quantities of any of the following narcotic drugs or any salts thereof, which [shall include] also contains one or more non-narcotic active medicinal ingredients in sufficient proportion to confer upon the compound, mixture, or preparation, valuable medicinal qualities other than those possessed by the narcotic drug alone:

1. Not more than 200 milligrams of codeine per 100 milliliters or per 100 grams;
2. Not more than 100 milligrams of dihydrocodeine per 100 milliliters or per 100 grams;
3. Not more than 50 milligrams of ethylmorphine per 100 milliliters or per 100 grams;
4. Not more than 2.5 milligrams of diphenoxylate and not less than 25 micrograms of atropine sulfate per dosage unit. (1970, ch. 403.)

281.

(a) Every person who manufactures, distributes, or dispenses any controlled dangerous substance within the State or who proposes to engage in the manufacture, distribution, or dispensing of any controlled dangerous substance within the State, shall obtain annually a registration issued by the Department in accordance with the rules and regulation promulgated by the Department. Persons registered
