

industry, and any and every private school or educational institution, except those operated by bona fide church organizations, must secure a certificate of approval issued by the State Superintendent of Schools, before it may begin or continue to operate or function in this State. Bona fide church organizations shall include those schools known as Amish and Mennonite church parochial schools in Charles, Garrett, and St. Mary's counties. Provided that nothing in this section shall be construed as having application to any school or college that is now operating under a charter granted by the legislature of Maryland ~~§.7 or rehabilitation workshops or facilities engaged exclusively in training handicapped persons for the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation of the State Department of Education. Provided further, that it shall be mandatory upon the State Superintendent of Schools to issue a certificate of approval to any private school or educational institution which offers an apprenticeship or training program the cost of which is paid from a trust fund administered jointly by an equal number of representatives of employees and employers pursuant to a labor management collective bargaining agreement if said apprenticeship or training program has been issued a certificate of registration by the Maryland Apprenticeship and Training Council.~~ NOTHING IN THIS SECTION SHALL BE CONSTRUED TO APPLY TO ANY APPRENTICESHIP OR TRAINING PROGRAMS THE COST OF WHICH IS PAID FROM A TRUST FUND ADMINISTERED JOINTLY BY AN EQUAL NUMBER OF REPRESENTATIVES OF EMPLOYEES AND EMPLOYERS PURSUANT TO A LABOR-MANAGEMENT COLLECTIVE BARGAINING AGREEMENT.

(b) The State Superintendent of Schools shall issue a certificate of approval to any applicant operating or proposing to operate a private school or educational institution whose conditions of entrance, scholarship, educational qualifications, standards and facilities are adequate and appropriate for the purposes, program, training and courses to be taught or given therein. Any certificate may be revoked at any time for cause by the State Superintendent of Schools but only in the manner herein prescribed, except that a certificate of approval issued, pursuant to subsection 12 (a) of this subtitle, to any private school or educational institution which offers an apprenticeship or training program the cost of which is paid from a trust fund administered jointly by an equal number of representatives of employees and employers pursuant to a labor management collective bargaining agreement shall not be revoked so long as said apprenticeship or training program has been issued a certificate of registration by the Maryland Apprenticeship and Training Council and said certificate of registration is still in effect. Before any certificate may be revoked, the State Superintendent of Schools shall first give the school involved a written notice of conditions of which he complains and shall give the school thirty days in which to correct those conditions. If at the end of a thirty-day period or extensions thereof as may be granted by the State Superintendent of Schools, the State Superintendent of Schools is still dissatisfied, he shall issue the school a written order requiring the school to close within fifteen days from the date of the order; provided, however, the order shall be stayed if within the fifteen day period, the school files a written appeal to the State Board of Education requesting a hearing to seek reversal of the State Superintendent's decision. Upon receipt of the appeal, the State Board of Education shall
