

of Schools, except those exempted in subsection (c) hereof and a prospective student thereof, shall be valid unless executed on a form approved by the State Superintendent. If a note is to be executed in connection with the payment of tuition or fees set forth in the enrollment contract, it shall be referred to in and attached to the contract of enrollment.

(e) No nonpublic school, except those exempted in subsection (c) hereof, may employ a sales representative or solicitor who holds himself out as a counselor unless said person meets the requirements of the State Department of Education for a certificate in counseling. Provided that nothing in this section shall be construed as having application to counselors employed by any private school or educational institution which offers an apprenticeship or training program the cost of which is paid from a trust fund administered jointly by an equal number of representatives of employees and employers pursuant to a labor-management collective bargaining agreement and which has in effect a Certificate of Approval.

(f) No nonpublic school, except those exempted in subsection (c) hereof, may permit its sales representatives or solicitors to solicit students without first securing an identification card issued by the State Superintendent of Schools. The identification cards shall be issued within ten (10) working days of the date of filing the application, provided that a school holding a certificate of approval may authorize its sales representative or solicitor to solicit after filing an application for such identification card.

(g) Any nonpublic school advertising its ability to place its students in gainful employment shall keep such placement records as the State Superintendent may prescribe, and keep such records available to the State Superintendent.

~~[(c)]~~ (h) Any such school or educational institution shall be open for inspection by the State Superintendent of Schools or his designated agent, at all reasonable times. Every school or educational institution shall be required to furnish such information and reports from time to time as the State Superintendent of Schools shall deem necessary and proper in the manner and on forms prescribed by him.

~~[(d)]~~ (i) The State Superintendent of Schools is hereby authorized to issue rules and regulations not inconsistent with this subtitle to supplement and implement the purposes and provisions hereof, provided that the State Superintendent of Schools shall prior to such issuance give thirty days written notice of such proposed rules and regulations to the schools or educational institutions affected thereby and shall afford such schools or educational institutions a reasonable opportunity to be heard regarding any objections they might have to such rules and regulations. Any school or educational institution affected thereby shall be given reasonable written notice of the final issuance of such rules and regulations together with a copy thereof, and, if aggrieved by any of the provisions therein, shall be entitled to a hearing before the State Board of Education provided such school or educational institution files a written protest with the Board within thirty days from the issuance of such rules and regulations. Such rules and regulations when approved by the State Board of Education and filed with the clerk of the Court of Appeals and the Department of Legislative Reference shall have the force and effect of law.
