

the General Assembly with respect to the legislative enactment which would be necessary to carry out such proposals. Such study shall include consideration of the following:

(1) The steps necessary to unearthing, preserving, and collecting historical materials dealing with Negro history and culture.

(2) What can be done to preserve and catalog existing materials.

(3) Examine the possibilities of the establishment of a museum of Negro history and culture or a center of Negro history and culture.

(4) Consider where such a museum or center should be located, whether it should be independent or a part of an existing establishment, and how it should be financed.

(5) Consider the methods of disseminating such materials so that the information can be best integrated into the mainstream of Maryland education and life.

(6) Cooperate with and seek the cooperation of the educational institutions of the State in furtherance of the objectives stated in this section.

(d) Cessation of existence.—The existence of the Commission shall be extended to the end of the 1971 session of the Maryland General Assembly and the Commission shall complete its work by that time.】

409.

(a) There is created a Commission to be known as the Commission on Negro History and Culture (hereafter referred to as the "Commission"). The Commission shall be composed of nine (9) members who shall be appointed by the Governor to serve for a three year term. The appointees shall be representative of the entire Maryland community, and they shall be persons who have a knowledge of black history, and who are sensitive to the problems of the black community, and who are connected with agencies working to integrate black history and culture into our American culture. The Governor shall designate one of the members of the Commission as Chairman, and one as Vice Chairman. The Commission shall meet at the call of the Chairman or at the call of a majority of the members thereof.

(b) The Commission shall:

(1) Conduct an extensive survey of the data collected by the former Commission on Negro History and Culture relating to Maryland blacks;

(2) Determine the manner to which such data could be put to its maximum use;

(3) Conduct a study to determine which of several existing institutions the Commission should be phased into at the end of its three year existence; and

(4) Submit an annual report to the Governor and the General Assembly of its plans and accomplishments, and submit a final report to the 1974 session of the General Assembly, including a recommendation of the institution onto which the Commission should be grafted.
 WITHIN WHICH THE COMMISSION SHOULD BE LOCATED.
