

reaching his 60th birthday is entitled to any benefits under the provisions of this section.

(3) The widow of every elected municipal judge who dies in active service shall be paid one half of the pension or salary the judge would have received if his service had been terminated by retirement and for this purpose only, the age of the judge is not to be considered; the widow of any judge eligible for retirement pension who dies after retiring shall be paid one-half of the pension or salary to which her husband was entitled at the time of his death. In determining the amount which any widow is entitled to be paid after June 1, 1963, the pension of the deceased judge shall be calculated at the rates prescribed by sub-subsection (1) of this subsection, as of that date, notwithstanding that such judge may have died prior thereto. In each instance the pension is to be paid to the widow until her remarriage or death. The provisions of this section shall not apply in the case of a widow who was married to the judge for a period less than three years and to a retired judge for a period less than three years before his retirement.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act, to the extent necessary to effectuate its purpose, shall be deemed to have a retrospective effect.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1971.

Approved May 24, 1971.
