

satisfied during the decedent's lifetime or during the administration of the estate;

(v) Make partial distributions, in cash, in kind, or both, from time to time during the administration;

(w) Agree to deposit any of the assets of the estate with any financial institution in such a manner that the assets cannot be withdrawn or transferred without (1) the written consent of the surety on the bond or (2) an order of court **[.];

(x) Invest in, sell, mortgage, exchange or lease any property; borrow money for the purpose of protecting property and pledge property as security for such loan; and extend or renew any obligation owing by or to the estate;

(y) To designate himself on any document as an executor, if the decedent died testate, or as an administrator, if the decedent died intestate.

7-501.

The personal representative shall give written notice to all interested persons of the filing with the court of ~~every inventory and account~~ except to ~~all~~ the extent otherwise provided by the court for good cause shown. All exceptions to an account must be filed with the register within thirty days of the court's approval of the account. No exceptions may be filed as to any item which has become final and binding under Section 7-502. Copies of all exceptions shall be mailed by the exceptant to the personal representative.

7-502.

The personal representative shall give written notice to each creditor who has filed a claim under Section 8-104 which is still open and to all interested persons of any claim, petition or other request which could result, directly or indirectly, in the payment of a debt, commission, fee, or other compensation to, or for the benefit of, the personal representative or the attorney for the estate. The notice shall set forth in reasonable detail the amount [to be] requested [and], the basis therefor, and the action taken by the court thereon. Unless a request for a hearing thereon is filed within 20 days of the sending of the notice, any action taken by the court in connection therewith shall be final and binding on all persons to whom the notice was given unless there was fraud, material mistake or substantial irregularity in the proceeding. Where all interested persons and each creditor who has filed a claim under Section 8-104 which is still open and unpaid have consented in writing to the amount of the payment requested, no certification by independent counsel as to the reasonableness of the amount of the payment shall be required.

8-102.

Unless a contrary intent is expressly indicated in the will, no claim which was barred by any statute of limitations at the time of the decedent's death shall be allowed or paid. Subject to Section 8-103 (a), any period of limitations which would terminate, except for the decedent's death, during the period from the decedent's death