

is enrolled and is regularly attending classes in a nurses' training school chartered or approved pursuant to State law; and service performed as an interne in the employ of a hospital by an individual who has completed a four years' course in a medical school chartered or approved pursuant to State law;

[(N)] (xiv) Service performed by an individual for a person as an insurance agent or as an insurance solicitor, if all [such] of the service performed by [such] that individual for [such] that person is performed for remuneration solely by way of commission; or

[(O)] (xv) Casual labor performed after January 1, 1945, not in the course of the employer's usual trade, occupation, profession or business.

[(P)] (xvi) Service performed by real estate salesmen on a commission basis for licensed real estate brokers to the same extent they are now or may hereafter be exempted by federal law.

[(Q)] (xvii) Service performed as a part-time school bus operator, if [such] that operator has other full-time employment or another full-time occupation.

[(R)] (xviii) Services performed on a part-time basis as a marketing research interviewer outside of all of the places of business of the enterprises for which [such] that service is performed [.]:

[(i)] If the service is performed pursuant to a written contract of not more than sixty (60) days duration which expressly states that the research survey interviewer is responsible for the payment of federal self-employment taxes and understands that he is not within covered employment as defined in this article; and

[(ii)] If the sale of or solicitation to purchase any goods or services is not a part of the service performed by such marketing research interviewer.

[(8)] (9) Part covered and part exempt services.—If [, after December 31, 1940,] the services performed during one-half or more of any pay period by an individual for the person employing him constitute employment, all the services of [such] that individual for [such] that period shall be deemed to be employment. [but] However, if the services performed during more than one-half of any such pay period by an individual for the person employing him do not constitute employment, then none of the services of [such] that individual for [such] that period shall be deemed to be employment. As used in this subsection the term "pay period" means a period (of not more than thirty-one consecutive days) for which a payment of remuneration is ordinarily made to the individual by the person employing him. This subsection shall not be applicable with respect to services performed in a pay period by an individual for the person employing him, where any of [such] those services is excepted by subsection (g) [(7)] (8) [(C)] (iii) of this [sub-section] Section.

[(9)] (10) Services performed within the geographical boundaries of this State on land owned, held or possessed by the United States government shall be deemed to be employment within this State.
