

stances of the conflict and the legislation to which it relates and asserts he is able to vote and otherwise participate in legislation action relative thereto fairly, objectively, and in the public interest.

(b) The rights restored by the filing of the statement are exercised subject to further action by the Committee, if the question of conflict comes before it.

99) Every legislator shall file with the Committee and the Secretary of State at the times and in the manner required by the Committee, a written report listing:

(1) If representing a person, firm, or corporation for compensation, before any State agency, exclusive of judicial, the name of the one represented, the services performed, and the consideration received.

(2) If representing a State agency for compensation, the name of the agency, the services performed, and the consideration received.

~~(3) Where the appearance of any member of the legislature is a matter of public record, it shall be deemed significant disclosure and exempt from the Rule. Written notice addressed to the agency by the member shall constitute public record, as the term is used herein, provided this notice sets forth the name of the person, firm or corporation which the member represents and the nature of his representation.~~

~~(4)~~ (3) Any enterprise subject to regulation by a State agency in which he, or a member of his immediate family (spouse and children living with him) owns more than 10% of the invested capital or capital stock.

(4) ALL REPORTS FILED UNDER THIS SECTION SHALL BE A MATTER OF PUBLIC RECORD.

100) (a) Any person may file with the Committee a written statement, accompanied by an affidavit, charging a violation of the rules in this subheading. The statement shall be confidential, and neither its contents nor the fact that it has been made shall be made public, unless a report thereon is made pursuant to Rule 101 (a).

(b) The Committee shall make a preliminary investigation of the charges contained in the statement. If it is determined that a violation of the rules may have occurred, the person cited in the statement shall be notified and, within fifteen days, may file a written answer thereto. Upon receiving this answer, the Committee shall either dismiss the charges or schedule a formal hearing not more than twenty days after notice to the person named therein. The hearing shall not be open to the public.

(c) The legislator named in the statement shall be entitled to present evidence, cross-examine witnesses, face his accuser, and be represented by counsel.

101) (a) If, after the preliminary investigation, the Committee finds that no violation has occurred, the matter shall be closed unless the person investigated requests in writing that the findings be made public.