

"Sec. 28. In addition to the duties hereinbefore prescribed for the Commissioner of Finance [and Revenue], he shall also be the Treasurer of said City, and as such Treasurer shall give bond in such amount and in such form as may be required by the said Mayor and City Council, in a sum not less than Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00) with a surety company authorized to do business in the State of Maryland as surety (the cost of same to be paid by the Mayor and City Council of Cumberland), to be approved by the Mayor and City Council, said bond to be conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties. It shall be his duty to receive and keep, as herein provided, all money belonging to the said City, and to pay out the same only on drafts drawn by the Comptroller, signed by him, and countersigned by the Commissioner of Finance [and Revenue] and the Mayor, under the seal of the said Mayor and City Council, and not otherwise. He may cause such signatures to be affixed to such drafts or checks by hand or by the use of such automatic device as may be expedient, and such signatures may, in his discretion, be applied as facsimile signatures, by plates or stamps, which shall be the property of said City and shall remain in the custody of the City Comptroller. The various depositories of said City shall honor such drafts, checks or other orders containing the signatures of said Comptroller, Finance Commissioner and Mayor, when duly presented in the usual course of business. All moneys belonging to said City and received by the Collector, either from taxes, water rents, licenses or collections, or from any other sources whatsoever, shall be by him deposited with the said Treasurer daily, and all other officers shall pay once in each month not later than the last day thereof, for all moneys received; the Treasurer shall give duplicate receipts in all cases, one to the party paying the said money into the Treasury, and one for the Comptroller; all persons charged with the collection of any money under this article or ordinance passed in pursuance thereof shall promptly pay the same over to the Treasurer, under such penalty as may be prescribed by ordinance, and shall forthwith hand the Treasurer's receipt to the Comptroller, who shall countersign the original receipt. Said Treasurer shall render a full and complete statement of his receipts and payments to the Mayor and City Council at the first meeting in each month, and whensoever at other times he may be required by any members of said City Council to do so. The Mayor and City Council shall have the right to require of the Treasurer a new bond whenever in their opinion the existing bond is insufficient; and whenever such new bond is required, he shall perform no official act until said bond shall be given and approved in the manner aforesaid. The said Treasurer shall make daily deposits of such sums of money as shall be received by him from all sources of revenue whatsoever, to his credit as Treasurer of said City in one or more banks situated in said City, to be selected by said Mayor and City Council. The Mayor and City Council in the selection of such depository bank or banks, shall take into consideration the reputation and solvency thereof, and said Treasurer shall do and perform such other acts as said Mayor and City Council may require of him."

Section 2. AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the date of the passage of this Resolution is September 29, 1970, and the amendment to the Charter of the City of Cumberland, hereby enacted, shall become effective on November 18, 1970, unless a proper Petition for a Referendum hereon shall be filed as provided by Section 13 of Article 23A of the Annotated Code of Maryland, and provided a complete and exact copy of this Resolution shall be continuously posted on the North Centre Street entrance of the City Hall, Cumberland, Maryland, until November 8, 1970; and provided further that a fair summary of the proposed amendments shall be published in the Cumberland Evening Times, a newspaper of general circula-
