

qualified the person, firm, company, corporation, partnership, owner, lessee or agent for such license, for a period not exceeding one hundred twenty (120) days following the date of such death, illness or physical disability, provided said business, maintenance or repair work is conducted under such qualified supervision as the board deems adequate and provided that all requirements concerning bonds and insurance are first complied with.

(c) A person, firm, company, corporation, partnership, owner, lessee, or agent shall be allowed to continue a business or to perform maintenance and repair work for a period not exceeding ninety (90) days should the registered licensee who qualified the person, firm, company, corporation, partnership, owner, lessee, or agent for such license terminate his services therefrom, provided such business, maintenance or repair work is conducted under such qualified supervision as the board deems adequate and provided that all of the following requirements are met :

1. All bonding and insurance requirements are complied with ;
2. The licensee shall notify the board in writing within five (5) days after terminating services as representative of said person, firm, company, corporation, partnership, owner, lessee, or agent ; or
3. The person, firm, company, corporation, partnership, owner, lessee, or agent shall notify the board in writing within five (5) days after the licensed representative terminated his services.

No license issued under this Article shall be assigned or transferred from one licensee to another. The board shall allow the license of a licensee in good standing to transfer with the licensee if he terminates his services with one employer and transfers to another employer or becomes self-employed.

(d) No license shall be renewed for any person, firm, company, corporation or partnership until all of the requirements of Sec. 83-25 have been complied with.

(e) A licensee may by notifying the board in writing declare his contractor's license inactive. During the period the license remains inactive, the yearly renewal fee as required by this Article shall be paid. Bonding and insurance requirements required by Sec. 83-25 shall be waived for the period said license remains inactive. No license shall be deemed inactive unless all work for which permits have been issued has been fully completed and has received final inspection and approval by the department of inspection and licenses.

(f) The director shall keep a register of all licenses placed on or removed from inactive status and of any licensee who changes his affiliation as representative of a person, company, firm, corporation, partnership, owner, lessee, or agent, upon approval of the board. A license placed on the inactive list may be returned to active status upon proper notification and application in writing by the licensee to the board. All requirements of this Article shall be complied with before said license shall be restored to active status by the board.

Sec. 83-27. Display, Duplicates.

Holders of licenses issued under this Article shall display the license in a prominent place at their business location and upon demand shall give the number of the license to any person who may be entitled to the same. If the license is lost, defaced or destroyed, a licensee in good standing may obtain a duplicate upon filing an application to the director and payment of the cost of replacement.