(j) Reports and recommendations. The superintendent of police shall make a written report annually to the county council and county executive as to the operation of the police division, for the fiscal year ending June 30, and shall submit recommendations for improvements, and he shall make such other general and special reports as may be required.

Section 14. Section 98-2, Chapter 98, title "Quarries," of the Montgomery County Code 1965, is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

98-2. Enforcement of chapter.

This chapter shall be enforced by the director of inspection and licenses, the county police and other agents of the county, under the direction of the county executive.

Section 15. Section 101-2, Chapter 101, title "Slaughterhouses," of the Montgomery County Code 1965, is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

101-2. Enforcement of chapter.

The director of inspection and licenses is hereby authorized to administer and enforce the provisions of this chapter. For the purpose of enforcing the same, the officers and employees of the department of inspection and licenses, and the health officer shall have the right to enter and inspect at any time during business hours any building, structure or premises used as a slaughterhouse.

Section 16. Section 102-1, Chapter 102, title "Solicitors," of the Montgomery County Code 1965, as amended, is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

102-1. Definitions.

For the purposes of this chapter, the following words and phrases shall have the meanings respectively ascribed to them by this section:

Director. The director of the department of inspection and licenses, acting under the chief administrative officer.

Solicitor. Any person within the county traveling by foot or conveyance of any kind from place to place, house to house, door to door or upon any street or highway, taking or attempting to take orders for the sale of goods, wares and merchandise or any nature whatsoever, including magazines and other printed matter, for future delivery, whether or not such person has, carries or exposes for sale a sample of the subject of such sale or whether or not he is collecting advance payment on such sales. The terms "soliciting" and "solicit" shall be construed accordingly.

Superintendent. The superintendent of the division of police protection.
