

Section 17-35. Regulations as to parking on County or Revenue Authority Parking Facilities

It shall be unlawful for any person to park a vehicle at any time or to permit a vehicle to be parked at any time on any county parking lot or Baltimore County Revenue Authority parking facility contrary to the limitations and restrictions imposed in any sign conspicuously posted on such parking lot or facility as hereinafter provided. The traffic engineer and the Revenue Authority shall cause signs to be posted on all [county-owned] such parking lots and facilities where parking is limited, indicating such limitations. The director of traffic engineering is hereby granted full power and authority to adopt orders and directives relating to or in connection with the parking of vehicles on such county-owned parking lots. [Nothing in this section shall apply to any parking lot under the jurisdiction of the Baltimore County Revenue Authority.]

Section 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect forty-five days after its enactment.

Bill No. 138

An Act to shorten the time within which the police department must hold unclaimed property before selling the same at public auction, by repealing and re-enacting with amendments Section 24-11 of the Baltimore County Code, 1968 Edition, Title "Police Department," Article II. Disposition of Unclaimed Property.

Section 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE COUNTY COUNCIL OF BALTIMORE COUNTY, MARYLAND, That Section 24-11 of the Baltimore County Code 1968, Title "Police Department," Article II. Disposition of Unclaimed Property, be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, to read as follows:

Section 24-11. Sale at public auction.

The chief of police of the county is hereby authorized and empowered to sell, at public auction, any and all lost, abandoned, stolen, lawfully seized or unclaimed property, of every kind and description remaining unclaimed for [ninety] thirty days or more in the possession or under the control of the police bureau; provided, that the chief of police shall prior to any public auction sale, advertise, once in one or more newspapers printed and published in the county, that on some day to be named in the advertisement, not less than ten days after the publication thereof, he will offer for sale, at public auction, such lost, abandoned, stolen, lawfully seized or unclaimed property, which advertisement shall set forth the time, place and terms of the sale, together with a detailed description of the property to be sold; provided further, that the chief of police, before selling any property as herein provided, shall make a reasonable effort to ascertain the owner thereof, and shall, if the owner and his residence be known, mail a registered notice to such owner at such residence, at least ten days prior to the date of the sale.

Section 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect forty-five days after its enactment.

Bill No. 150

An Act to prohibit the movement of commercial vehicles, of more than $\frac{3}{4}$ ton capacity, over certain residential streets and to vest in the