

(a) To inspect and copy records required by this subheading to be kept;

(b) To inspect, within reasonable limits and in a reasonable manner, controlled premises and all pertinent equipment, finished and unfinished material, containers and labelling found therein, and, except as provided in subsection (b)(5) of this section, all other things therein (including records, files, papers, processes, controls, and facilities) bearing on violation of this subheading; and

(c) To inventory any stock of any controlled dangerous substance therein and obtain samples of any such substance.

(4) The Department and its agents shall have authority to inspect without a warrant books and records pursuant to this subheading and to enter and conduct administrative inspections (including seizures of property) without a warrant:

(a) With the consent of the owner, operator, or agent in charge of the controlled premises;

(b) In situations presenting imminent danger to health or safety;

(c) In situations involving inspection of conveyances where there is reasonable cause to believe that the mobility of the conveyance makes it impracticable to obtain a warrant;

(d) In any other exceptional or emergency circumstance where time or opportunity to apply for a warrant is lacking; and,

(e) In all other situations where a warrant is not legally required.

(5) Except when the owner, operator, or agent in charge of the controlled premises so consents in writing, no inspection authorized by this section shall extend to

(a) Financial data;

(b) Sales data other than shipment data; or

(c) Pricing data.

297.

(a) Property subject to forfeiture.—The following shall be subject to forfeiture and no property right shall exist in them:

(1) All controlled dangerous substances which have been manufactured, distributed, dispensed, acquired, or possessed in violation of the provisions of this subheading;

(2) All raw materials, products and equipment of any kind which [or] are used, or intended for use, in manufacturing, compounding, processing, delivering, importing, or exporting any controlled dangerous substance in violation of the provisions of this subheading;

(3) All property which is used, or intended for use, as a container for property described in [subsections] paragraphs (1) and (2);
