CHAPTER 281

(House Bill 284)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 127 of Article 66C of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1970 Replacement Volume), title "Natural Resources," subtitle "Birds, Game and Inland Water Fish," subheading "Hunter's License," to delete that section of the law requiring a hunter to display a tag on his outer garment.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 127 of Article 66C of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1970 Replacement Volume), title "Natural Resources," subtitle "Birds, Game and Inland Water Fish," subheading "Hunter's License," be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

127.

Every license so issued shall entitle the person to whom it is issued to hunt game which is protected by law and for nonresidents to hunt wild birds and wild animals, in addition to the aforementioned game birds and game animals and fur-bearing animals in any county within the State at any time during the lawful open season, provided that every licensee while hunting as aforesaid shall have upon his person the license referred to above. [and every licensee, with the exception of those hunting wild waterfowl, shall display a tag bearing his license number in figures at least one inch in height fastened upon his outer garment in such manner that the figures are visible at all times while hunting.] The license must be produced for the inspection of the Director, wildlife officer, sheriffs, constables, or other officers or any landowner or his representative demanding to see it.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1971.
