

not affect or change the status of any property described in Section 8(67)(e) of this Article.

(c) Churches

Property owned by a religious group or organization and actually used exclusively for public religious worship, including parsonages and convents, and property owned by any such group or organization and actually used exclusively for educational purposes.

(d) Cemeteries

Property owned by persons or religious groups and actually used exclusively for the burial of dead persons, and property owned by a cemetery or mausoleum company and used for the burial of dead persons which company is not operated for pecuniary profit and which does not accumulate profits for any purpose other than the maintenance or improvement of the property.

(e) Charitable, Benevolent, and Educational Property

Property owned by (1) any incorporated or unincorporated non-profit hospitals, and asylums (but not exceeding 100 acres of land appurtenant to any hospital or asylum); ~~and~~ OR by (2) any nonprofit charitable, fraternal, benevolent, educational, or literary institutions or organizations, including public libraries subject to the provisions of Chapter 16 of Article 77 of this Code and nonpolitical, nonstock women's clubs (but not exceeding 100 acres of land outside of any city appurtenant to any institution or organization); when any of such property described above is actually used exclusively for and necessary for charitable, benevolent, or educational purposes (including athletic programs and activities of an educational institution) in the promotion of the general public welfare of the people of the State. In the case of fraternal organizations, the exemption shall extend only to those existing solely for the mutual benefit of their members and beneficiaries, which have a lodge system with ritualistic form of work and a representative form of government, and this term shall not mean any college or high school fraternities or sororities or other fraternal organizations with membership which is restricted wholly or largely to students or graduates of educational institutions or professional schools. This exemption shall also extend to any property used for the purposes set out in this subsection, which is held by a corporation or association or by trustees for the sole benefit of any of the above organizations.

(f) Veterans' Organizations

Property owned by a national organization of veterans of the armed services of the United States whether or not incorporated by the United States Congress, including, but not limited to, the 29th Division Association of World War I, and the Society of the Cincinnati of Maryland, or owned by any department, State, or local unit, chapter, branch, or post, whether incorporated or not, of such organizations, and actually used exclusively for and necessary for the purposes of the organization.

(g) Dwelling Houses of Disabled Veterans and Blind Persons

(1) The ~~Property~~ PROPERTY of any citizen and resident of the State who is honorably discharged or released under honorable circumstances from active service in any branch of the armed forces, who