CHAPTER 392

(Senate Bill 192)

AN ACT to add new Section 20 to Article 42 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1971 Replacement Volume), (1971 Supplement) title "Habeas Corpus," subtitle "Jurisdiction and Procedure," to follow immediately after Section 19 thereof and to repeal and reenact, with amendments, Section 5A (6) of Article 5 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1971 Supplement), title "Appeals," subtitle "Appeals to Court of Appeals and Court of Special Appeals," to provide for the application for leave to appeal to the Court of Special Appeals from the denial or grant of habeas corpus relief sought to challenge a court's determination in regard to bail.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That new Section 20 is hereby added to Article 42 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1971 Replacement Volume), (1971 Supplement) title "Habeas Corpus," subtitle "Jurisdiction and Procedure," to follow immediately after Section 19 thereof and to read as follows:

A person who has sought habeas corpus relief either from the refusal of a judge to admit him to bail or from the judge's determination requiring an allegedly excessive bail, either prior to trial or at any time following conviction, but prior to final judgment, may apply to the Court of Special Appeals for leave to appeal from the refusal by such judge to issue the writ of habeas corpus applied for or to grant the relief sought in the writ. The Attorney General may apply for leave to appeal from the granting of relief in such habeas corpus proceedings. An application for leave to appeal shall be filed within ten days of the denial or grant of habeas corpus relief, and shall contain a brief statement of the reasons why the order of the lower court should be reversed or modified. The record on the application for leave to appeal shall contain a copy of the habeas corpus petition, any answer thereto filed by the State, the order of the court, and any memorandum of reasons issued by the judge. The application shall include a
