

4-107.

(d) A person who buys, receives, possesses, sells or disposes of a vehicle or an engine for a vehicle, with knowledge that an identification number of the vehicle or engine has been removed or falsified and with intent to conceal or misrepresent the identity of the vehicle or engine, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

6-301.1.

Any resident or nonresident, of Maryland, whose operator's or chauffeur's license or other driving privilege has been refused, cancelled, suspended, or revoked as provided in this article, or as provided in the applicable law of the jurisdiction which issued the nonresident's license or other driving privilege because such person prior thereto has been convicted of or has forfeited collateral for an offense or offenses committed in Maryland or another jurisdiction, and who thereafter fraudulently uses a false or fictitious name in any application for an operator's or chauffeur's license or for any other driving privilege shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

(b) The court in which the judgment was rendered, upon ten days' notice to the Board, may make an order permitting payment of the amount of the person's indebtedness to the fund to be made in installments, and in this case the person's driver's license, or his driving privileges, or registration certificates, if they have been suspended or revoked, or have expired, may be restored or renewed.

11-1002.2.

(a) Notice to last known registered owner.—A police department which takes into custody an abandoned motor vehicle shall, as soon as reasonably possible and in any event within seven days thereof, by registered mail, return receipt requested, signed by the addressee, notify the last known registered owner of the motor vehicle and all lienholders as shown on the records of the Department that the vehicle has been taken into custody. The notice shall describe the year, make, model, and serial number of the abandoned motor vehicle; set forth the location of the facility where the motor vehicle is being held, inform the owner and any lienholders of their right to reclaim the motor vehicle within three weeks after the date of the notice, upon payment of all towing, preservation and storage charges resulting from placing the vehicle in custody, and state that the failure of the owner or lienholders to exercise their right to reclaim the vehicle within the time provided shall be deemed a waiver by the owner and all lienholders of all right, title, and interest in the vehicle and consent to the sale of the abandoned motor vehicle at a public auction.

(b) Notice by publication.—If the identity of the last registered owner cannot be determined, or if the registration contains no address for the owner, or if it is impossible to determine with reasonable certainty the identity and addresses of all lienholders, or if the registered mail notice required by subsection (a) of this section is returned as undeliverable, notice by one publication in one newspaper of general circulation in the area where the motor vehicle was abandoned shall be sufficient to meet all requirements of notice
