

(b) Any person (including one acting for or on behalf of a firm, association, or corporation) is guilty of a misdemeanor if

(1) He has claimed to be aggrieved under the provisions of this subtitle; and

(2) He has pursued the complaint under Sections 14 and 15 of this subtitle, or either of these sections; and

(3) The Commission has found the complaint to be unfounded or has dismissed it without further action against the respondent; and

(4) The court has found the complaint to have been made maliciously; and

Upon conviction thereof in the appropriate criminal court, he is subject to a fine of not more than five hundred dollars, or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year, or to both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

This subsection shall not be construed or applied to deny the right of a respondent to bring any civil action against one who has filed a complaint under this subtitle. ]

(a) Any party aggrieved by a final decision or order of the Commission is entitled to judicial review thereof. Proceedings for review shall be instituted within 30 days after the service of the order of the Commission in the appropriate equity court of the county or Baltimore City where the alleged discrimination took place.

(b) Review by the court shall be limited to a review of the record of the proceedings before the Commission and the Commission's order pursuant to such proceedings.

(c) The court may affirm the decision and order of the Commission or remand the case to the Commission for further proceedings; or it may reverse or modify the decision and order if it finds the decision or order clearly (1) in violation of constitutional provisions, or (2) not within the statutory authority or jurisdiction of the Commission, or (3) made upon unlawful procedure, or (4) arbitrary and capricious, or (5) affected by other error of law, or (6) unsupported by or against the weight of competent, material and substantial evidence in view of the entire record. Whenever the court shall affirm in whole or in part an order of the Commission requiring the respondent to cease and desist from certain discriminatory acts or requiring the respondent to take any other affirmative action, the court shall issue an order for the enforcement of the Commission's order in so far as the court has affirmed that order.

(d) An aggrieved party may secure a review of any final judgment of the equity court of the county or Baltimore City, as the case may be, under this section by appeal to the Court of Appeals. Such appeal shall be taken in the manner provided by law for appeals from equity courts in other civil cases.

15A.

If no proceeding for review is instituted in the appropriate court within the time prescribed in Section 15 of this article, and the respondent fails or refuses to comply with the order, the Commission may apply for an order of court for the enforcement of the Com-
