

(iii) Unless otherwise directed by a pedestrian control signal, as provided in Section 11-203, pedestrians facing any green signal, except when the sole green signal is a turn arrow, may proceed across roadway within any marked or unmarked crosswalk, in the direction of the green signal.

(2) Steady yellow indication.

(i) Vehicular traffic facing a steady yellow signal is thereby warned that the related green movement is being terminated or that a red indication will be exhibited immediately thereafter when vehicular traffic shall not enter the intersection.

(ii) Pedestrians facing a steady yellow signal, unless otherwise directed by a pedestrian control signal as provided in Section 11-203, are thereby advised that there is insufficient time to cross the roadway before a red indication is shown, and no pedestrian shall then start to cross the roadway.

(3) Steady red indication.

[a.] (i) Vehicular traffic facing a steady red signal alone shall stop at [the near side of the intersection and the stop shall be made at a stop line when one is marked, and if no stop line is marked, then before entering any crosswalk, and if there is no stop line or crosswalk, then before entering the intersection, and traffic shall remain standing until a green indication is shown] a clearly marked stop line, but if none, before entering the crosswalk on the near side of the intersection, or if none, then before entering the intersection and shall remain standing until an indication to proceed is shown except as provided in subsection (a)(3)(ii) of this section.

(ii) When a sign is in place permitting a turn, vehicular traffic facing a steady red signal may cautiously enter the intersection to make the turn indicated by such sign after stopping as required by subsection (a)(3)(i) of this section. Such vehicular traffic shall yield the right of way to pedestrians lawfully within an adjacent crosswalk and to other traffic lawfully using the intersection.

[b.] (iii) Unless otherwise directed by a pedestrian control signal as provided in Section 11-203, pedestrians facing a steady red signal alone shall not enter the roadway.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1972.

Approved May 26, 1972.

CHAPTER 498
(House Bill 228)

AN ACT to add new Section 556C to Article 43 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1971 Replacement Volume), title "Health," subtitle "Hospitals and Related Institutions," to follow immediately after Section 556B thereof, to provide that no hospital or related institution shall discriminate against any patient, in providing
