(c) If the Administration determines that any licensee is guilty of any violation of any of the provisions of this Article, the authority of the licensee to do business may be revoked or suspended for a period of time determined by the Administration.

(d) If any application for a license under this Part is refused, the applicant, within ten (10) days from the date of notice of refusal is mailed, may request a hearing. The hearing must be held within thirty (30) days of the date of request, and the Administration must render a decision within twenty (20) days following the hearing. The Administration may subpoena and take testimony, as provided in Section 5-707(b), in connection with the hearing.

(e) If any person fails to comply with a lawful order or subpoena issued by the Administration under this Part or to appear to testify to any matter concerning which he may be lawfully interrogated, upon petition of the Department, setting forth the facts, it shall be the duty of the Circuit Court of any county or of the Baltimore City Court, as the case may be, to compel the production of relevant documents and other evidence. Any person failing, refusing, or neglecting to comply with the order of the court shall be punished for contempt of court.

(f) Any person denied a license or whose license has been cancelled, refused, suspended, or revoked by the Administration may file an appeal for a hearing in the matter in the Baltimore City Court or in the Circuit Court of the County, as the case may be, wherein the person resides, and the court has jurisdiction to take testimony and examine into the facts of the case and to determine if the petitioner is entitled to a license or is subject to suspension, refusal, cancellation, or revocation of license under the provisions of this Article. In the case of non-residents, the Circuit Court of the county or the Baltimore City Court, depending upon the place the non-resident was convicted of any violation of this Article, has jurisdiction. In cases where jurisdiction is not otherwise provided for in this section, the Circuit Court for Anne Arundel County shall have jurisdiction. In the event an appeal is prayed, the Administration shall stay its order pending determination of the appeal.

5-708.

Notwithstanding the administrative and criminal sanctions imposed by this Part, any person suffering pecuniary loss by reason of a violation of any provision of this Part by any person licensed under this Part, whether or not such person has been found guilty of a criminal violation, may recover reasonable damages, court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees therefor in any court of competent jurisdiction.

5-709.

In addition to the administrative and criminal sanctions of this Part, any manufacturer, distributor or factory branch who terminates or fails to renew the franchise of a dealer, in violation of the provisions of this part, shall pay to the dealer the fair and just value of the business of the dealer as a going concern, including good
