

the residue of the oil discharge or spillage, to the extent of damage caused to the natural and recreational resources of the State, and to the extent of any otherwise uncollectible fines levied against the vessel, its owner or agent, its charter, or the owner or operator of the terminal at which the vessel discharges or receives the bulk oil. The remedies provided in this section shall be in addition to all other remedies available. No bond shall be released without certification by the Authority or the Department that the vessel has not been a source of oil discharge or spillage into the waters of the State. Where a vessel has presented adequate evidence of financial responsibility to the federal government, it shall be exempt from the Maryland provisions requiring the posting, and forfeiture, on certain conditions of a bond.

(b) Any vessel in the waters of the State for the purpose of discharging, or which receives, cargo of bulk oil without being bonded as provided in subsection (a) of this section, and the owner, agent, and charterer thereof, and the owner or operator of the terminal at which the vessel discharges or receives bulk oil without being so bonded, shall be punished by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars ($5,000.00).

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1972.

Approved May 26, 1972.
