

(d) An inmate under a plan as provided for in this section, including an inmate who has been permitted to live at home or elsewhere, shall be deemed to be in the custody of the Commissioner of Correction to the same extent, and subject to the same supervision and control, as an inmate actually confined in an institution. ~~Such inmate shall remain in the custody of the Commissioner of Correction and shall be subject to the Commissioner's supervision and control, as an inmate actually confined in an institution.~~ Such inmate shall remain in the custody of the Commissioner of Correction and shall be subject to the Commissioner's supervision and control, until the inmate has been pardoned or paroled or until he has served his full sentence less the deductions provided for in Section 700 of this article. Whenever a plan for an inmate has been revoked by the Commissioner of Correction, the inmate shall be returned to actual confinement in an institution until a new plan, if any, has been approved for him.

(e) Other State agencies, including but not limited to, the Department of Employment and Social Services and the Division of Parole and Probation, shall cooperate with the Division of Correction to implement and accomplish the objectives of the program provided for in this section.

(f) The Commissioner of Correction is authorized to promulgate such rules and regulations as may be necessary to implement the "extended work release program" provided for by this section.

(g) If any inmate released from actual confinement under an "extended work release program" shall wilfully violate the terms of authorization for release in the plan approved for him, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be subject to the penalties provided in Section 139 of this article.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1972.

Approved May 31, 1972.
