

(3) The cost of installation of such materials does not exceed that which is usual and customary in that particular locality.

Materials and labor may be furnished by a brandowner for the custom manufacture of an advertising display not exceeding Fifteen Dollars ($15.00) which is temporary in nature and has no other utilitarian value. No manufacturer or non-resident dealer or brandowner shall undertake any plan or design which directly or indirectly results in the purchase of advertising materials or supplies or advertising services by any wholesale or retail licensee; neither shall a wholesale or retail licensee participate directly or indirectly in any transaction in which he pays for or shares in the cost for any of the value of the advertising materials, supplies, services, or mailing expenses utilized to promote a brandowner's products; nothing contained herein is intended to prevent a wholesale licensee from furnishing brandowners as defined herein, with display materials and installation services at charges, computed at not less than the fair market value for such services. Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine of not more than [five] one thousand dollars [$5,000.00] ($1,000.00) or by imprisonment for not more than two years or by both fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1972.

Approved May 31, 1972.
