

WHEREAS, They have no protection of rate review; and

WHEREAS, Those citizens need be offered the equal remedy and recourse allowed to all other citizens who work in the States; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Congress of the United States be requested to pass legislation which would make Group Hospitalization, Incorporated, operating within the confines of the District of Columbia, subject to the rules and regulations promulgated by the ~~Insurance Commissioner~~ SUPERINTENDENT OF INSURANCE of Washington, D.C.; and

Be it further resolved, That copies of this Resolution be sent to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the President of the United States Senate, MAYOR WALTER WASHINGTON, OF WASHINGTON, D.C. AND WALTER E. FAUNTROY, DELEGATE TO CONGRESS FROM WASHINGTON, D.C., the United States Senators from Maryland, and the Maryland Members of the House of Representatives.

Approved May 26, 1972.

---

No. 44

(House Joint Resolution 37)

House Joint Resolution commending Mrs. Helen Mackall for her extraordinary heroism in successfully saving the lives of two school children, and congratulating her on having a playground named in her honor.

WHEREAS, Mrs. Helen Mackall was until January 1970, a much beloved crossing guard for P.S. 144 and P.S. 202; and

WHEREAS, in January 1970, Helen Mackall performed an act of extraordinary heroism and bravery when she saved the lives of two children from a careening automobile; and

WHEREAS, due to her unselfish heroic act, Helen Mackall was seriously injured and ultimately lost a leg; and

WHEREAS, the fifth grade class of the two schools involved participated in a contest to rename the George Nichols Playground; and

WHEREAS, the classes decided to rename the playground the Helen Mackall Playground, in honor of the woman who gave of herself to save the lives of two of their classmates; and

WHEREAS, on December 11th, 1971, a program was held to formally dedicate the playground the Helen Mackall Playground; and

WHEREAS, Helen Mackall was cited as policeman of the month; was presented a silver bowl by Frank Bennett, Director of Safety and Education, of the Baltimore City Public Schools; and