VETOES

notated Code of Maryland (1970 Replacement Volume), title "Vehicle Laws," subtitle "Subtitle 7. Financial Responsibility and Unsatisfied Claim and Judgment Fund," subheading "Part VI. Unsatisfied Claim and Judgment Fund Law," and to enact a new Section 7-621.1 of the same Article, Code, title, subtitle and subheading, to follow immediately after Section 7-621 thereof, providing for a change in the procedure of obtaining permission to bring an action against the Unsatisfied Claim and Judgment Fund Board, and generally relating thereto.

May 31, 1972.

Honorable Thomas Hunter Lowe
Speaker of the House of Delegates
State House
Annapolis, Maryland 21404

Dear Mr. Speaker :

In accordance with Article II, Section 17, of the Maryland Constitution, I have today vetoed House Bill 889.

This bill amends the Unsatisfied Claim and Judgment Fund law to change the procedure for obtaining permission to bring an action against the Unsatisfied Claim and Judgment Fund Board.

House Bill 444, which was enacted by the General Assembly and signed by me on April 26, 1972, repealed the entire Unsatisfied Claim and Judgment Fund law. Because of the inconsistency between the two bills, and because the enactment of House Bill 444 renders House Bill 889 unnecessary, I have decided to veto House Bill 889.

Sincerely,

/s/ MARVIN MANDEL,
Governor.

House Bill No. 993—Distress for Rent

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, ~~Section 39Q~~ SECTIONS 39Q AND 39R of Article 53 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1972 Replacement Volume), and to add new Section 39S to follow immediately after Section 39R thereof, title "Landlord and Tenant," subtitle "Distress for Rent," to provide the tenant with the right to pay due rent at any time prior to eviction, to provide the forms that shall be used to summon tenants to court and to notify the tenants of the date of eviction. AND TO PROVIDE AN APPEAL PROCEDURE.

May 31, 1972.

Honorable Thomas Hunter Lowe
Speaker of the House of Delegates
State House
Annapolis, Maryland 21404

Dear Mr. Speaker :

In accordance with Article II, Section 17, of the Maryland Constitution, I have today vetoed House Bill 993.

This bill requires that notices used by the District Court to summon tenants to court, shall inform the tenants of the date of eviction and their rights of appeal.
