"WHEREAS, some doubt has been raised as to whether such practice is specifically authorized by the Enabling Act,

"NOW THEREFORE, pursuant to the authorization of Article 23A, Sections 12 and 13 of the Annotated Code of Maryland, it is resolved, by the Town Council of Chevy Chase Section Four that the Enabling Act of said Chevy Chase Section Four be amended as follows:

1. That immediately following subsection (e) of Section 98 of the Enabling Act there be added the following new subsection to be designated subsection (f) :

(f) The Town Council of Chevy Chase Section 4 shall have the authority to create a revolving fund under the direct authority and control of the Manager of Chevy Chase Section 4 to be used by him to meet the weekly payroll for the payment of the wages of employees of Chevy Chase Section 4 performing services under his supervision, and to make such other payments as the Town Council may authorize, the size of the revolving fund to be determined by action of the Town Council, and payments to be made to the revolving fund in replacement of expended funds to the extent that the Town Council shall determine such expenditures to have been right and proper. The revolving fund shall be deposited subject to the same conditions set forth in subsection (e), and such funds may be paid out by check signed by the Manager or the Treasurer or such other member of the Council as may be duly authorized by the Council. The Manager of Chevy Chase Section 4 shall give bond, with surety duly approved by the Council in the penal sum of TEN THOUSAND ($10,000) DOLLARS or such higher amount as may be fixed by the Council, conditioned upon the faithful accounting by him for all moneys which shall come into his hands, and the paying over to the Treasurer of all such moneys as remain in his hands upon the termination of his tenure of office as Manager."
