

(4) A person familiar with vocational education and manpower needs of agriculture;

(5) Persons representative of community and junior colleges and other institutions of higher education, area vocational schools, technical institutes and post-secondary or adult education agencies or institutions, which may provide programs of vocational or technical education;

(6) A person familiar with the administration of State and local vocational education programs;

(7) A person having special knowledge, experience, or qualifications with respect to vocational education and who is not involved in the administration of State or local vocational education programs;

(8) A person familiar with programs of technical and vocational education, including programs in comprehensive secondary schools;

(9) A person representative of local educational agencies, and a person or persons who are representative of school boards;

(10) A person or persons representative of manpower and vocational education agencies in the State and the Comprehensive Area Manpower Planning System of the State;

(11) A person representing school systems with large concentrations of academically, socially, economically, and culturally disadvantaged students;

(12) A person having special knowledge, experience, or qualifications, with respect to the special educational needs of physically or mentally handicapped persons;

(13) Persons representative of the general public, including the poor and disadvantaged, who are not qualified for membership under any of the preceding [clauses] paragraphs of this [paragraph] subsection.

412.

(b) The Authority shall consist of seven members, all of whom shall be citizens of the State of Maryland, one of whom shall be a resident of Howard County. The Director of Agricultural Extension, State of Maryland, and the Comptroller of the State shall be ex officio members, and the tenure of their office shall coincide with the terms for which they hold the designated offices. In the event of a vacancy in any of the ex officio officers, the seat on the Authority is to be taken by the interim or permanent successor.

The Governor of the State of Maryland, with the advice and consent of the Senate, within thirty (30) days after June 1, 1967, shall appoint five members who shall be outstanding citizens of the State of Maryland. The original appointments of those five members, excluding the ex officio members, shall be made in such manner that the term of one member shall expire on July 1, 1968, the term of another member shall expire on July 1, 1969, the term of another member shall expire on July 1, 1970, the term of another member shall expire on July 1, 1971, and the term of the remaining member shall expire on July 1, 1972. Their successors shall be appointed for terms of five years from the dates of expiration of their respective terms of office, except that any person appointed to fill a vacancy shall serve only for the unexpired term. Any member of the Authority is eligible for reappointment. The Governor, after notice in writing