

No. 19, two justices of the peace and two constables; No. 20, two justices of the peace and two constables; No. 23, two justices of the peace and two constables.

19-2.

The justices of the peace appointed from and for districts 3, 17, 21, 22, 24, and 25, constituting Hagerstown and vicinity, shall have, in addition to their duties as justices of the peace of the State of Maryland, the enforcement of the ordinances of said town.

19-3.

The justices of the peace appointed for districts 3, 17, 21, 22, 24, and 25, before qualifying as such, shall each give bond to the State of Maryland in a penalty of one thousand dollars, with a surety or sureties to be approved by the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Washington County, conditioned that he will well and faithfully perform and execute the duties and obligations of the office of justice of the peace, and that he will account for and pay over to the County Commissioners of Washington County all fines, penalties, forfeitures and costs imposed by him and which he shall receive for or an account of criminal offenses tried before him, under the provisions of the Code of Public General Laws, and Code of Public Local Laws, and that he will account for and pay over to the tax collector of Hagerstown all fines, penalties, forfeitures and costs imposed by him and which he shall receive for or on account of offenses against the ordinances of Hagerstown, and that he will well and truly account for and pay over to the person, persons, corporation or corporations entitled to the same, all money coming into his hands for or on account of any business pertaining to or connected with his office. The bond of the said justice of the peace shall be liable at the suit of the State of Maryland for the use of the County Commissioners of Washington County and of the City of Hagerstown and of any person, persons, corporation or corporations entitled under any default of said condition.

19-4.

The justices of the peace appointed for the districts constituting Hagerstown and vicinity shall each attend at his office in Hagerstown every day (Sunday excepted) at least from the hour of 9 o'clock A.M. until the hour of 12 o'clock, noon, and from the hour of 2 o'clock P.M. until the hour of 4 o'clock P.M. When notified by the State's Attorney of Washington County or any officer of the peace of said county, or by any police officer of Hagerstown, of any criminal matter requiring prompt attention, the said justices of the peace shall attend at their respective offices at such other hours on every day or at night (Sunday and legal holidays included) as the public interest may require; and neither of said justices of the peace shall absent himself from Hagerstown without having first arranged with the other of said justices that he will be in attendance at his office as required by law during such absence; nor shall either of said justices be absent from Hagerstown for more than three days consecutively at any time without the written authority of the State's Attorney of Washington County and of the Mayor of Hagerstown.
