

firm or remains employed by such firm or corporation on a regular forty (40) hour or more per week basis. Any license issued to a firm or corporation pursuant to the provisions of this section shall show on its face both the name of the firm or corporation and the name of the individual who has qualified for the class of license so issued.

(c) A licensee with a Master General Electrician license shall not surrender such license for the purpose of permitting the issuance of a Master General license to a different firm or corporation more than one (1) time during any twelve-month period.

Section 12-820.

In addition to the payment of the license fee, each [licensee] licensed Master Electrician General or Restricted Electrician shall file with the director a penal bond to the County in the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00), conditioned upon the faithful performance of any and all work entered upon or contracted by the licensee and to save harmless the owner or real party in interest in the property or structure within or for which the licensee shall provide work or materials from loss, damage or injury which shall arise through want of skill or through failure to use proper material in the performance of the work by the licensee. No license for a Master Electrician General or Restricted Electrician or renewal thereof shall be issued until such bond is filed. If, for any reason, such bond becomes ineffective, then in such event, the license shall be void and of no effect.

SECTION 3. And be it further enacted, That Section 12-811 of said Code, Title and Subtitle, Article III, "Licenses", be, and it is hereby repealed, and new Section 12-811 of said Code, Title, Subtitle and Article be, and it is hereby enacted in lieu thereof, to stand in the place of the Section repealed, to read as follows:

Section 12-811.

(a) There shall be three (3) classes of electrician's licenses:

- (1) Master General Electrician.
- (2) Master Limited Electrician.
- (3) Restricted Electrician.

(b) A Master General Electrician's license may be issued to any applicant eligible under this Subtitle. Any firm or corporation shall be entitled to receive said license only if at least one (1) of its employees is the holder of a Master General Electrician's license. Such license shall authorize the holder to perform (or have performed under his supervision) any of the work described in Section 12-800 of this Subtitle.

(c) A Master Limited Electrician's license may be issued to any person, firm or corporation, and shall specify the representative or representatives supervising the work authorized by the license. Such license shall authorize the holder to perform (or to have performed under the direction of its designated representative) any of
