APPROVED AND ENACTED: December 28, 1971.

Bill No. 117-71

AN ORDINANCE to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Sections 1-221 (b) and 1-223 (b) and (c) of the Anne Arundel County Code (1967 Edition and Supplements), Title 1, "Administration", Subtitle 2, "Personnel", Article III, "Employees' Retirement Plan", to include school crossing guards within the definition of "employee", and to change the basis for actuarial computation of compensation received for credited service in the Employees' Retirement Plan, respectively; and matters generally related thereto.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the County Council of Anne Arundel County, Maryland, That Sections 1-221 (b) and 1-223 (b) and (c) of the Anne Arundel County Code (1967 Edition and Supplements), Title 1, "Administration", Subtitle 2, "Personnel", Article III, "Employees' Retirement Plan", be and they are hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

Section 1-221

(b) The term "employee" means any paid employee of the county (including school crossing guards, but excluding all other employees paid on the Police and Fire Schedule) whose regular employment is for not less than five hundred (500) hours per year and for not less than four (4) months per year.

Section 1-223

(b) Each employee who was an employee of the county on January 1, 1949 who elected not to become a participant of the employees' retirement system of the state at that time and who has been an employee of the county since January 1, 1949, shall have the opportunity to obtain credit for any period of county service which he does not have to his credit under the state retirement system. Before receiving such credited service, the employee shall pay into the employees' retirement plan of the county the amount of money actuarially determined necessary by the county to purchase in full
