

pass a physical examination satisfactory to the board of trustees shall become a member of the retirement system as a condition of employment. Any person who enters the regular part-time employment of the employer after June 30, 1971 may become a member of the retirement system at any time within the first two years of his employment, but if he has not previously joined must become a member at the end of that period as a condition of employment, provided, such person shall pass a physical examination satisfactory to the board of trustees. Any person who is in the part-time employment of the employer on July 1, 1965, may, within a period of six months thereafter, become a member as of that date, unless such person shall file with the board of trustees on a form prescribed by the board a notice of his election not to be covered in the membership of the system and a duly executed waiver of all present and prospective benefits which would otherwise inure to him on account of his participation in the retirement system. Any such person who fails to become a member may thereafter apply for and be admitted to membership, but no credit for past service shall be granted unless he becomes a member before January 1, 1966. No person in part-time employment shall receive credit for service prior to July 1, 1965; except, that any such person in service subsequent to January 1, 1964, and becoming a member before January 1, 1966, shall receive membership service credit for all service rendered between January 1, 1945, and the date of his becoming a member; provided, that he pays to the system by a single payment or an increased rate of contribution, as may be approved by the board of trustees, the contributions with interest that would have been paid had he been a member between January 1, 1945, and the date of his becoming a member.

In computing benefits, each calendar year of membership service shall be that fractional portion of such year which shall be equal to the portion of time worked in each year as related to the standard county work year, and earnable compensation shall mean the full rate of compensation that would be payable to such part-time employee if he worked full time.

Section 20-11. Same—Member entering armed services.

Anything in this article to the contrary notwithstanding, if any member enters directly into the armed forces of the United States by reason of induction under any applicable Selective Service Act, by reason of the activation of a reserve unit of which he may be a member or as the result of his initial enlistment therein and does not withdraw his contributions, and if he returns to service as an employee within one year after having been honorably discharged from the armed forces or separated therefrom under honorable conditions, membership service credit shall be granted by the board of trustees for the period of such service in the armed forces, provided the member elects to make up his contributions for the period of his service in the armed forces within a reasonable period after his re-employment, such contributions to be based on his rate of earnable compensation at the time his service in the armed forces commenced. Any employee