

existing street or alley; and to assess the total cost of any proportion thereof against abutting property, where such work is to be financed by special or front-foot benefit assessment; to acquire by gift, dedication, purchase, condemnation or otherwise all and any interest whatsoever in any land, buildings and materials deemed necessary to carry out the purposes of this Chapter, and for the purposes of performing its duties for the Montgomery County Suburban District, the County is authorized and empowered to acquire land for public purposes by condemnation, as fully and with all power possessed by any private or public corporation of this State and in exercising the power of eminent domain herein granted the County shall proceed in the manner provided by the laws of the State relating to condemnation, as if the County were a municipal corporation named in the laws: To fix specifications of and issue permits for the construction of streets, sidewalks, curbs and gutters by any subdivider, developer or individual, to require compliance therewith and to provide for the inspection and supervision of such work, the cost thereof to be borne by such subdivider, developer or individual; to regulate and control the collection and disposal of ashes, trash, garbage and other refuse in the District; to establish and maintain such service as may be deemed necessary or desirable for the protection of the health and safety of the public in collecting and disposing of garbage, ashes, trash and refuse, and for the cleaning of streets, alleys and sidewalks; to license or contract, as may be deemed necessary, with a contractor, after providing for the receiving of bids and the awarding of such licenses or contracts to perform the service of collecting and disposing of such ashes, trash, garbage and refuse, under such regulations as may be established to authorize reasonable charges for such services and to provide the method of collecting the same.

(d) For the purpose of carrying out any power or discharging any duty conferred by this Chapter and in order to safeguard and protect the public health, safety or morals, the Council may, by law, authorize the County Executive to promulgate rules or regulations concerning any of the powers or subjects of this Chapter; provided, that such rules or regulations shall contain proper standards for the exercise of the discretion conferred herein and shall operate uniformly. Any person who violates the provisions of the rules or regulations so promulgated, upon conviction before any court having criminal jurisdiction in the County shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not more than fifty dollars for each violation, and in default of any fine so imposed may be imprisoned for a period not to exceed thirty days for each violation; provided further, that in any prosecution for the violation of any rule or regulation or any provision thereof, it shall not be necessary to set forth the same in full or verbatim, but it shall be deemed sufficient if the warrant, information or indictment upon which the person alleged to have violated the provision of any such rule or regulation