

(b) Rules, regulations and ordinances. Rules, regulations and ordinances adopted by the Council and rules and regulations promulgated by the County Executive during the last previous twelve months' period ending June 30, general and permanent in character and having the force and effect of law or a cumulative supplement containing, as amended, the sections of the Montgomery County Code amended since the last publication of the Code by rules, regulations and ordinances adopted by the Montgomery County Council and rules and regulations promulgated by the County Executive.

(c) Other laws, ordinances enacted by the County Council and all rules and regulations of a general and permanent nature having the force and effect of law adopted by the County Council or promulgated by the County Executive, cumulated since the last publication of the code which are not codified by section of the Montgomery County Code shall be included in an appropriate place in every cumulative supplement, except that standards, rules and regulations adopted by reference to an existing specific publication need not be included in a cumulative supplement, provided that the legislative vehicle by which such standard, rule or regulation was adopted is included.

(d) Appropriation resolution. The appropriation resolution adopted by the County Council for the fiscal year current at the time of publication.

(e) Cumulative table of Sections. A table of the Sections of the County Code repealed, added or amended subsequent to the publications of the last edition of the Montgomery County Code.

(f) Changes in Constitution, etc. Changes in Article XIA of the Maryland Constitution, Article 25A of the Annotated Code of Maryland, 1957, the Charter and the rules of legislative procedure of the Council.

(g) Indices. Appropriate indices of the foregoing.

SEC. 3. Section 2-9, Chapter 2, title "Administration," of the Montgomery County Code 1965 is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

2-9. Same—Evidentiary Value.

The matter appearing in any compilation or cumulative supplement required by the preceding Section as printed under the direction of the County Attorney, shall establish prima facie, and be legal evidence of the matters included therein.

SEC. 4. Severability.

The provisions of this Act are severable and if any provision, sentence, clause, section or part thereof is held illegal, invalid or unconstitutional or inapplicable to any person or circumstances, such
