

47A. Repeal of Inconsistent Laws.

All provisions of this Article, and all other laws or parts of laws, public general or public local, inconsistent with the provisions of this subtitle, are repealed to the extent of any such inconsistency.

47B. Severability.

If any part of this subtitle including any section or subsection or portion thereof, shall be held to be unconstitutional or invalid for any reason, such unconstitutionality or invalidity shall not affect the remaining parts of this subtitle, it being the intention that the remaining parts of this subtitle would have been enacted into law if such unconstitutionality or invalidity had been known; and to this end, all parts of this subtitle are declared to be severable.

SEC. 2. And be it further ordered, That, unless the General Assembly by law enacts a plan for legislative districting and apportionment by the forty-fifth day after the opening of the regular session of the General Assembly in 1972 in accordance with Article III, Section 5 of the Constitution of Maryland, this legislative districting and apportionment plan shall take effect on the forty-sixth day after the opening of the regular session of the General Assembly in 1972.

GIVEN Under My Hand and the Great Seal of Maryland, in the City of Annapolis, this 12th Day of January 1972.

Marvin Mandel
Governor of Maryland
