

(b) The provisions of this Chapter shall not apply to any electrical work or equipment installed by or for any electric company, telegraph or telephone company, where such electrical work or equipment is owned and maintained by such company and is an integral part of the plant or service used by such company in rendering its service to the public.

(c) The provisions of this Chapter shall not apply to installations in mines, ships or railway cars or to automobile equipment.

(d) The provisions of this Chapter shall not apply to installations or equipment employed by the United States government.

83-3. Administration and Enforcement of Chapter.

This Chapter shall be administered and enforced by the Department of Inspection and Licenses, hereinafter sometimes referred to as the "department."

83-4. Right of Entry of Departmental Personnel.

Any official or employee of the Department of Inspection and Licenses shall have the right during reasonable hours to enter any building or premises, except a private dwelling, in the discharge of his official duties for the purpose of making any inspection or test of any electrical installation or equipment contained therein, and no person shall hinder, impede or interfere with any such official or employee in the discharge of his official duties.

83-5. Unlawful Maintenance of Installations.

In the case of any electrical installation for which a permit is required under this Chapter, it shall be unlawful for any person to maintain or allow to be maintained such electrical installation if it was installed after the effective date of this Chapter without a permit and does not conform to the requirements hereof.

83-6. Notice to Purchasers Required—Air Conditioners, Ovens, Cooking Units.

Any person who sells a window air conditioner, wall-mounted oven, or any counter-mounted cooking unit shall upon such sale notify the purchaser thereof, in writing, of the electrical wiring requirements of the air conditioners, wall-mounted oven or counter-mounted cooking unit, as the case may be.

83-7. Violations and Penalty.

Any person, firm, company, corporation or partnership in violation of the provisions of this Chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof, shall be subject to a fine of not more than one thousand dollars or imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months, or both.
