

d. Provide alternate service within forty-eight (48) hours in the event of mishap or breakdown of regular equipment or collection service is missed for any reason.

SEC. 3. Section 87-19, Chapter 87, title "Garbage and Refuse," of the Montgomery County Code 1965, as amended, is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

87-19. Permits and licenses issued under Chapter—Refusal to renew ; revocation or suspension.

The Director may refuse to renew or he may revoke or suspend any license or permit issued under this Chapter or take such other action as he may deem necessary upon a finding that the holder of the license or permit has violated any provision of this Chapter or the continued use or operation under this Chapter would endanger the health, welfare or safety of the public. Notice of revocation, suspension or refusal to renew or other action shall be in writing and mailed by certified mail or delivered in person to the address shown on the application and shall provide for a right to a hearing before the Director prior to final action. In the event of an immediate danger to the public health or safety, notice and hearing shall not be required but shall be given as promptly thereafter as practical.

In the collection and transportation of refuse, the Director may revoke the registration of a particular vehicle or vehicles of the licensee found to be in violation of this Chapter, such revocation to remain in force until such time as the licensee puts any or all vehicles in compliance with the provisions of this Chapter or corrects the violation. Notice of revocation shall be as provided above. Such revocation of the registration of a particular vehicle shall not otherwise affect the license to do business issued under this Chapter or affect the registration of complying vehicles of the licensee.

SEC. 4. Section 87-21, Chapter 87, title "Garbage and Refuse," of the Montgomery County Code 1965, as amended, is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

87-21. Penalty for violations of Chapter ; injunctive, etc., relief.

Any violation of any provisions of this Chapter shall, upon conviction thereof before a court of competent jurisdiction, be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) or by confinement in the county jail for not more than six months, or both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. Each day a violation of the provisions of this Chapter continues to exist shall constitute a separate offense. In addition thereto, the County may institute injunctive, mandamus or any other appropriate action or proceedings at law or equity for the enforcement of this Chapter or to correct violations of this Chapter, and any court of competent
