CHAPTER 97

(Senate Bill 431)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 33 of Article 56 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1968 Replacement Volume), title "Licenses," subtitle "Traders," to generally eliminate the restrictions for a liquor license applicable only to women and to eliminate special contract obligations of women thereunder.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 33 of Article 56 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1968 Replacement Volume), title "Licenses," subtitle "Traders," be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

33.

When any person, body politic or corporate shall propose to sell or barter, or dispose of, or offer for sale anything mentioned in Section 32, except spirituous or fermented liquors, he shall apply to the clerk of the circuit court for the county in which he proposes to carry on such selling or bartering, or disposing of goods, wares, chattels, or merchandise; or if he purposes to carry on such selling or bartering, or disposing of goods, wares, chattels or merchandise in the City of Baltimore, to the clerk of the Court of Common Pleas for a license therefor; and a license to offer for sale issued by said clerk of Court of Common Pleas or by the clerk of the circuit court for any county shall be good and sufficient as a license to offer for sale in every part of the State; provided that such license shall not authorize the holder thereof to open or carry on any store or fixed place of business for such selling or offering for sale in any place other than in the place of business designated in said license and in the application therefor, it being intended hereby that a separate trader's license shall be obtained for each store or fixed place of business; but no license to trade or to sell spirituous or fermented liquors shall be issued by any clerk of a court to [a feme covert, or to] any person under the age of twenty-one years, without the special order of a judge of said court; and no judges shall give such special
