

(i) if the person has not previously been convicted of unlawfully wearing, carrying or transporting a handgun in violation of this Section 36B, or of unlawfully carrying a concealed weapon in violation of Section 36 of this article, or of unlawfully carrying a deadly weapon on public school property in violation of Section 36A of this article, he shall be fined not less than two hundred and fifty ($250.00) dollars, nor more than twenty five hundred ($2,500.00) dollars, or be imprisoned in jail or sentenced to the Maryland Division of Correction for a term of not less than 30 days nor more than three years, or both; provided, however, that if it shall appear from the evidence that the handgun was worn, carried, or transported on any public school property in this State, the Court shall impose a sentence of imprisonment of not less than 90 days.

(ii) if the person has previously been once convicted of unlawfully wearing, carrying, or transporting a handgun in violation of Section 36B, or of unlawfully carrying a concealed weapon in violation of Section 36 of this article, or of unlawfully carrying a deadly weapon on public school property in violation of Section 36A of this article, he shall be sentenced to the Maryland Division of Correction for a term of not less than 1 year nor more than 10 years, and it is mandatory upon the Court to impose no less than the minimum sentence of 1 year; provided, however, that if it shall appear from the evidence that the handgun was worn, carried, or transported on any public school property in this State, the Court shall impose a sentence of imprisonment of not less than three years.

(iii) if the person has previously been convicted more than once of unlawfully wearing, carrying, or transporting a handgun in violation of Section 36B, or of unlawfully carrying a concealed weapon in violation of Section 36 of this article, or of unlawfully carrying a deadly weapon on public school property in violation of Section 36A of this article, or any combination thereof, he shall be sentenced to the Maryland Division of Correction for a term of not less than three years nor more than 10 years, and it is mandatory upon the Court to impose no less than the minimum sentence of three years; provided, however, that if it shall appear from the evidence that the handgun was worn, carried, or transported on any public school property in this State, the Court shall impose a sentence of imprisonment of not less than 5 years.

(iv) If it shall appear from the evidence that any handgun referred to in subsection (a) hereof was carried, worn, or transported with the deliberate purpose of injuring or killing another person, the Court shall impose a sentence of imprisonment of not less than five years.

(v) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, including the provisions of Section 642 of this article, (a) no court shall enter a judgment for less than the minimum mandatory sentence provided for in this subheading in those cases for which a minimum mandatory sentence is specified in this subheading; (b) no court shall suspend a minimum mandatory sentence provided for in this subheading; (c) no court shall enter a judgment of probation before verdict or probation without verdict with respect to any case arising under this subheading; and (d) no court shall enter a judgment of probation after verdict with respect to any case arising under this subheading which would have the effect of reducing the actual period of imprisonment or the actual amount of the fine prescribed in this subheading as a mandatory minimum sentence.
