

any sale, or gift to a minor or minors, as aforesaid, and all the means, materials and instrumentalities for manufacturing, dispensing, otherwise disposing of, or transporting the same, and all the paraphernalia or part of the paraphernalia of a barroom or drinking saloon, and forthwith report in writing the facts to the State's Attorney for Montgomery County, and any such intoxicating liquors or the means, materials and instrumentalities for manufacturing, transporting, dispensing, or otherwise disposing of the same or the paraphernalia or part of the paraphernalia of a barroom or drinking saloon shall constitute prima facie evidence of the violation of the provisions of § 118 or subsection (a) of this section, as charged or presented.

197. Queen Anne's and Wicomico counties and the Town of Crisfield.

(a) Premises as public nuisance.—All places where intoxicating liquor is sold in violation of any provision of this article, shall be taken and held and are declared to be public nuisances, and may be abated as such; and it shall be part of the judgment [of the trial magistrate, or] of the court, [as the case may be,] upon conviction of the keeper, that the place where liquor is found to have been sold contrary to this article be shut up and abated until the keeper shall give bond, with sufficient security to be approved by [the trial magistrate, or] the court, in the penal sum of two thousand dollars ($2,000.00), payable to the State of Maryland conditioned that he will not sell intoxicating liquor contrary to law, and will pay all fines, costs and damages assessed against him for any violation thereof, and in case of a violation of the condition of such bond, suit may be brought and recovery had thereon for the use of the county, for any fine or fines, costs and damages that may be assessed against him under this article; and in the event a jury trial shall be prayed when the case is brought before the [trial magistrate] District Court, or any appeal shall be taken, the place where the liquor is alleged to have been sold contrary to this article, shall be shut up and abated until the alleged offender shall give bond, with sufficient security to be approved by the [trial magistrate] court in the penal sum of two thousand dollars ($2,000.00), payable to the State of Maryland, conditioned that pending said appeal and/or final disposition of the case he will not sell intoxicating liquor contrary to law, and will pay all fines, costs and damages assessed against him for any violation thereof, and in case of a violation of the condition of such bond, suit may be brought and recovery had thereon for the use of the county for any fine or fines, costs and damages that may be assessed against him under this article.

(b) Search warrants.—(1) If any person or any officer of the law make a sworn complaint or an affidavit before [the trial magistrate or any justice of the peace for and of] a District Court judge in the county, particularly describing the house, store, boat, motor vehicle, aeroplane, premises or any other place or thing to be searched, and the things to be searched for, that he has reason to believe and does believe that intoxicating liquor is sold, or is kept for the purpose of being sold or otherwise disposed of in violation of the provisions of this article, or contrary to law, [such trial magistrate or justice of the peace] the judge shall forthwith issue his warrant to serve criminal process, directed to the sheriff, deputy