SECTION 12. And be it further enacted, That Section 31 of Article 10, Annotated Code of Maryland (1968 Replacement volume), title "Attorneys at Law and Attorneys in Fact," subtitle "Who May Not Practice Law," be and it is hereby repealed.

SECTION 13. And be it further enacted, That Sections 44 and 73 of Article 11, Annotated Code of Maryland (1968 Replacement volume), title "Banks and Trust Companies," Subtitles, respectively, "Savings Institutions," and "General Regulations," be and they are hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

§ 44. Reports to Bank Commissioner—In general.

Every mutual savings institution without capital stock shall annually within twenty days after the last day of December make a report to the Bank Commissioner showing accurately the condition thereof at the close of business on the last business day of December. Such report shall exhibit in detail and under proper headings the resources and liabilities of the institution at the close of the business day aforesaid and shall contain such information and be in such form as the Bank Commissioner may prescribe. In addition to this detailed report as of the last business day of December, every mutual savings institution without capital stock shall annually within twenty days after the last day of June make a report to the Bank Commissioner, showing accurately the condition thereof at the close of business on the last business day of June, specifying such particulars as may be prescribed by the Bank Commissioner, who shall furnish the blanks for each class of report. All reports required by this section shall be signed and verified by the oath or affirmation of either the president, vice-president or treasurer of such institution before a notary public [or justice of the peace; if before a justice of the peace, then such justice shall be certified to by the clerk of the circuit court or of the Superior Court of Baltimore City, as the case may be]; and any person making oath to false statements in such report shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and upon conviction shall be subject to the penalties provided by law for that offense.

73. Reports to Commissioner—In general.

Every bank and trust company shall make to the Commissioner not less than two reports during each calendar year, at such times as the said Commissioner shall require the same, according to the forms which he shall prescribe and furnish. Such forms shall conform as nearly as practicable to the forms required of banking institutions under the jurisdiction of the federal authorities, including the schedules. Such reports shall be signed and verified by the oath or affirmation of either the president, vice-president, cashier or treasurer of such bank or trust company before a notary public [or justice of the peace; if before a justice of the peace, then such justice shall be certified to by the clerk of the circuit court of the Superior Court of
